TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Depending on your payment structure, one month's or term's written notice is required if you wish to discontinue your private lessons. We reserve the right to stop lessons if the fees have not been paid as per the agreement.

Please give at least 48 hours' notice if you will miss a private class. If you miss a private class due to illness and you did not give sufficient notice, but you have a doctor's note, you may still catch up that class on another day that suits your teacher. If you miss a private class due to any other reason without sufficient notice, your class will be forfeited and you will need to pay for the class.

No written notice is required if you wish to discontinue drop in classes or the use of termly group class packages. The group card package deals may only be used to whom it is registered. The group class package is only valid until the expiration date (term end) and may not be bought back, or transferred to the next term

Drop in classes and all group classes must be booked by 12H00 every Monday. Cancelled classes must be done before 18H00 on the night before the morning classes and 12H00 on the day of the evening classes. Late cancellations or no shows will still be signed off, or charged as though the class is taken. Once a class is booked, no swapping or trading classes is allowed.

Should we close due to circumstances beyond our control (including epidemics, riots or national crisis's) we will not be liable to refund your fees.

We reserve the right to withhold your examination results due to outstanding fees, which may include disciplinary action.

All examination fees that are paid to the international societies are for your own pocket and not refundable.

We reserve the right to withdraw you from an examination if we deem that you are not yet ready for the required standards of the examinations, or if you have not attended enough of your classes.

Under no circumstances may you contact any of the international societies for your examination results or make direct contact with the persons who examined you.

We will not be held liable for any injury sustained on the BBATA premises or any venue occupied by BBATA for training or entertainment purposes.

All classes and activities that you participate in are at your own risk. We are not responsible for any injuries, loss or theft of property.

We reserve the right to change the times or adapt the class structures at any time after giving you notice in advance.

At the year end, if no month or term's notice is given, your contract will be automatically be renewed for the following year.
